

BDO in Luxembourg appoints Alain Lam as its new Managing Partner from October 1st 2024

LUXEMBOURG, September, 19th 2024

BDO Luxembourg is pleased to announce the appointment of Alain Lam as its new Managing Partner, effective October, 1st 2024. Alain takes the torch from Daniel Croisé, who has successfully led the firm over the past years. Alain will be supported by a newly appointed leadership team, ensuring a seamless transition and the continued growth of BDO Luxembourg.

With over two decades of experience in the financial and corporate services sector, Alain Lam has already been an integral part of BDO Luxembourg's success (since joining the firm in 2017 and serving as a member of the executive committee) and heading various strategic initiatives that have expanded the firm's client portfolio. His vision focuses on driving innovation, delivering client-centric solutions with strong emphasis on quality, and further strengthening BDO Luxembourg's position as a leading provider of professional services in the region.

Commenting on his appointment, Alain Lam said: "I am honored to take on this role and lead BDO Luxembourg into its next chapter. Our firm's core values as well as collaboration and agility have been key to our success, and I look forward to working closely with our talented teams and support our clients to continue sustainably building on our strong foundation."

Outgoing Managing Partner Daniel Croisé expressed his confidence in the transition: "It has been a privilege to serve as Managing Partner and to witness the tremendous growth of BDO Luxembourg. I am confident that Alain, with the support of the new leadership team, will lead the firm to the next level."

The newly established leadership team and all the other partners are set to focus on maintaining the firm's high standards of service while embracing emerging trends and opportunities in the market. With Alain Lam's appointment, BDO Luxembourg reaffirms its commitment to delivering world-class services, staying at the forefront of industry changes, and supporting its clients in navigating complex business challenges.
